letzter Aufruf: 14.06.2021

Possible Tasks:

1. Read the extract from the book and analyze how Jonas feels when he is selected. Give evidence from the text.
 - Which are the qualities a Giver must have?
 - Describe what each of these traits means to you and identify examples of ways one may demonstrate them.
 - Rank the most to least important of the character traits noted above. Justify, why some traits are more valuable to you than others.
2. CHARACTER TURNING POINT
 - After Jonas learns that he has been selected to be the Receiver of Memory, he experiences mixed feelings of both pride and fear. Describe how this selection changes Jonas.
 - For the first time ever, Jonas learns what it is like to feel different and slightly alienated from his community. Explain the impact this might have on his life.
 - Do you prefer to be part of a community and behave like all members do or do you like to live an individual life? Explain and give reasons.
3. Post Reading Activity

Acting a Scene:

- Forms groups of three. Act out, how you feel after each of you is assigned their future position in life. Imagine, how you feel, talk about your hopes, and worries.
